Hello and welcome to Hayes Lane for this afternoon's highly-anticipated Adobe Women's FA Cup clash between Gwalia United and London City Lionesses.

Firstly, a warm welcome to our visitors from Wales this afternoon – today's match is the first meeting between the two sides and we're always excited to take on another independent women's club.

Today's fixture is all about securing a place in the fourth-round draw, the point at which clubs from the Barclays Women's Super League enter the competition. After last season's run (which saw the Pride beat Moneyfields and Billericay en route to a fifth-round tie against Liverpool), it's safe to say that the team is fired up to go again in the world's best domestic knockout competition.

There haven't been any club fixtures since we last spoke, besides our Women's League Cup loss to West Ham United, that is. However, that isn't to say that our players and staff haven't been incredibly busy over that period.

Twelve players flew the nest over the international break, with Isobel Goodwin making her debut for England U23s and Kosovare Asllani scoring to secure Sweden's place at EURO 2025. Back at LCL HQ, Jocelyn Prêcheur was as busy as always, working with everyone at the club to ensure the team is ready for this three-game week.

London City fans, thank you for your incredible support – let's make Hayes Lane as loud as we can today.

Gwalia United supporters, thank you for making the trip, wishing you all the best for the rest of the season!
