PROGRAMME CONTENTS

Football is more than a game, it's a community. Earlier this week, we were deeply saddened by the tragic passing of 10-year-old Poppy Atkinson, a talented young footballer who loved the sport. To honour Poppy's memory, we will hold a minute's applause in the 10th minute of our match against Blackburn Rovers today. We invite all fans to join us in remembering Poppy and showing support to her family and teammates during this difficult time.

It's crunch time in the Women's Championship. Six games left. Three at home, three away. No room for error, no time for plan B, and we're going to give it all we've got heading into the final stages of the season.

We're back at Hayes Lane for two Sunday's in a row, facing Blackburn Rovers and Sheffield United over the following two weeks, before heading to Newcastle and Southampton after that.

Exactly a month after our win over Sunderland, we're so glad to be back on home soil. Off the pitch, we've been working as hard as possible behind the scenes to make this a matchday to remember. Our fanzone is back again, with even more games, competitions and players to meet, we've installed a giant screen next to the Glyn Beverly stand and even built a DJ Booth! We also have DJ China L'One keeping us entertained before and after kick-off from the new DJ booth.

We've been working hard on the pitch too, with 10 LCL players going away to represent their countries since our victory over the Black Cats – with Saki Kumagai captaining Japan to SheBelieves Cup glory whilst away! On top of that, we've had one away day: Charlton at the Valley.

We headed into the sixth minute of added time trailing by one goal to the Addicks. Enter Kosovare Asllani, whipping a direct free kick into the top left-corner and in off the post to deliver in the dying embers for the Pride – sending the travelling fans into delirium and snatching a vital point at the death. If you missed the goal, check it out.

That's all from us, and we hope you have a fantastic matchday!

Sam Wright, Programme Editor.
