Welcome to Hayes Lane for the final time this calendar year, it's been an incredible ride and we're ready to write the final chapter against Southampton.

It's been a busy period for the club since we last spoke, with wins over Gwalia United (Adobe Women's FA Cup) and Portsmouth (Women's League Cup) in recent weeks.

Today's fixture sees the Pride take on Southampton and former head coach Remi Allen.

I'd like to take this opportunity to offer everyone associated with the Saints a warm welcome to Bromley, it promises to be an exciting match, and we're excited to take on Remi's side for the second time this season.

It's difficult to put into words how impactful this year has been for the Club, with Michele Kang's acquisition and the launch of the Kynisca Group. We're on a journey to become the world's preeminent women's sports organisation and have been making serious progress in all areas – whether that's on the field or in the commercial offices upstairs.

There's still plenty for us to work on and many achievements left to unlock, but we're proud of how far we've come and excited to step into 2025 with you on our side.

Back to today's match, a massive clash at the top of the Barclays Women's Championship.

Ahead of kick-off, we're three points behind league-leading Birmingham City. There's still everything to play for and we need you to be loud and proud behind the squad today.

Away from the pitch, there's lots to enjoy – from free drink coupons to live half-time entertainment. It's a festive party, with world-class football on top!

Thank you for your incredible support this year – let's push the boundaries even further in the new year.

City on three,

Luke James – Marketing & Communications Executive
