PROGRAMME CONTENTS

London City and West Ham United fans,

Welcome to Hayes Lane for this afternoon's long-awaited London Derby in the Women's League Cup.

It's a top-of-the-table clash in Group C, with London City beating Southampton and West Ham defeating Portsmouth in gameweek one.

Today's match therefore takes on additional importance, with the winning side racing into pole position to advance to the quarter-finals.

Since we last spoke, our form has hit a bump in the road, suffering Barclays Women's Championship defeats to Birmingham City and Durham Women.

Maiden Castle is always a difficult place to visit – we're yet to secure a single point on our travels to Durham – and last weekend's clash was the latest example.

Izzy Goodwin scored a brace, but it wasn't enough to see off the threat of the Wildcats.

Losing to Birmingham City a week earlier was another blow – but the players are happy to be back on home soil and excited to test themselves against Women's Super League opposition in West Ham.

The Hammers sit eleventh in the WSL, with only goal-difference keeping them above the drop zone.

There's everything to play for this afternoon and we need you to be loud and proud behind the team.

Thank you for your incredible support, let's make our mark under wet and windy conditions in Bromley.

City on three!
